February 2008

Welcome to our 2nd edition of the Holiday Farm Resort newsletter. Rainbow again has proven to be the place for a winter retreat. With our beautiful snow fall all around, it feels like winter paradise. Holiday Farm Resort guests have taken advantage of our winter offers and onsite restaurant with nightly dinner specials. Dining in our historical farmhouse restaurant by a cozy fireplace is always an experience, not to mention great entrees and homemade dinner roles with honey butter. Or just try our homemade famous Marionberry cobbler. With summer months right around the corner, let us help plan your next vacation with top quality service and beautiful cabins along the McKenzie River. We have 8 cabins and houses which accommodate quite the retreat or family reunion.

James Rhine from BB6 and All-stars visited us in December and fell in love with the Riverhouse cabin. He skied Mt. Bachelor and toured Sahalie and Koosah falls near Rainbow. Then he floated in Belknap Hot Springs east of Rainbow. In fact, James enjoyed himself so much, he hosted the first ever "Big Brother Premier Launch Party" on February 10th, 11th, and 12th. Kail invited most past houseguests to come to the Holiday Farm and help launch the Big Brother 9 season premiere. There was multiple activities including, skiing/snowboarding (at Hoodoo), soaking in Belknap Hot Springs and partying in the Rainbow's End Lounge at the Holiday Farm Resort. Kail and James hosted the Big Brother BBQ meet and greet at Takoda's then hosted a buffet dinner which everyone was invited to attend. It was so successful that we will again host the Big Brother 10 later this summer. Keep an eye on our website for the details to come. There were 7 past houseguests who made the journey: James, Kail, Howie, Jennifer V., Daniele, Zack and Mike, all of whom will try and return for the season 10 premier.

We are very excited to let you in on our little secret. Holiday Farm Resort has opened a spa on site, grand opening March 10th! Everyone is invited to relax with a massage in our historical farmhouse. With state of the art equipment and a private room with a masseuse on duty everyday, plan on being pampered. Keep an eye on our website for rates and details. We will be hosting our 2nd wine tasting on March 8th. Please RSVP by March 3rd if you are interested. If singing is your thing, enjoy Karaoke on Saturday nights. Summer will bring our concerts back so enjoy them in our back meadow. We feature different bands each weekend.
